Thank you for choosing to worship with us this morning. If you are visiting with us today, we ask that you sign the guest book at the back of the church and that you please accept a small gift prepared just for you. The gift can be found in a basket on the back table.

The Oil Lamp at the front of our meeting place symbolizes our prayers for peace between our country and neighbors around the world.

July 18, 2010 On this Sunday we will meet for worship both in Spanish (in the Fellowship Hall) and in English (in the sanctuary). In both services we will hear a message and there will be plenty of singing. Peter Boldt will play his French horn during the English language service.

July 25, 2010 On this Sunday morning Amy Stone, a student at MBBS, will be preaching in our English service. Lance and Christy Zimmerman will provide special music. In our Spanish service we can anticipate a rich time of worship and praise.

Joys and Concerns The World Cup concludes today. This huge sporting event brings together the best national teams from around the world to kick a round ball around on a finely manicured grass field. The game has a great equalizing effect. It does not matter where you come from or how big your country is—just kick the round ball. Seeing people of different nationalities, religions, and race play hard but then exchange jerseys afterwards reminds us that, at our best, we can find ways of living harmoniously together as human beings on this planet. Today we praise God for signs of peace we see around us, and we pray for more.

MCC Speakers Tonight and Next Sunday Tonight at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall Leroy and Joan Willems will be sharing about MCC work in the Sudan. MCC, during its long history in Sudan, has related to victims of the country's disastrous civil war, and has monitored the crisis in the western Darfur region of the country. Leroy (originally from Dinuba) and Joan have been serving as MCC's country representatives in Sudan.

Next Sunday evening Doug Kulungu will be speaking on the Congo. Doug is a recent graduate of Fresno Pacific. His father, Pascal, directs a peace and conflict studies center in Kinshasa. Doug hopes to return to the Congo and enter into politics with the fervent desire to better the land of his birth. Doug will be sharing at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Camp Keola Junior and junior high camp at Camp Keola begins this afternoon. We pray for a great week for our campers and all those who work with them.

Peace Center Friday, July 16 – 6:30 p.m. Speakers: Joan and Leroy Willems, MCC workers in Sudan. Topic: Coming Home: Sudan. A 22-year civil war, which ended in 2005, left southern Sudan as one of the most impoverished regions in the world. People who fled during the war are returning home to find little infrastructure, such as schools or health care, to accommodate a growing population.

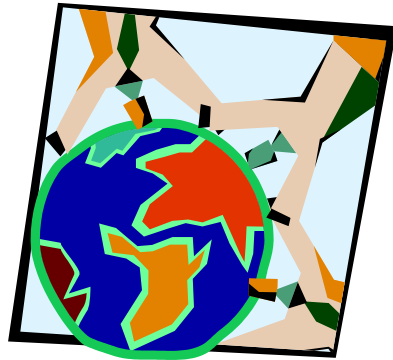

“Shaping Families” Radio Program on KRDU-AM (1130) “I Crawled Out of a Garbage Can.” Can you imagine trying to sleep in a garbage can? Ray doesn't have to imagine, he remembers. Ray has a hopeful story to tell of his struggle with bipolar illness and homelessness. Listen today at 12:15 p.m. and again at 7:45 p.m. If you miss the broadcast you can visit www.ShapingFamilies.com to download a podcast or the transcript.

MCC Opportunity! Nearly New Thrift Shop has openings for Saturday clerks. Good opportunity for retired couples, or for anyone with a heart for MCC, to spend a morning or afternoon helping others! Two clerks are needed in the am (9am to 1pm) and two more in the pm (1pm to 4pm). Volunteer for one or more Saturdays per month. Will train. Call Aleta Rempel (637-1195) to apply.

Recycled Ink Cartridges Many of you have brought in your used ink cartridges for recycling. We use these to get credit for office supplies. There is now a box in the organ entry way where you can drop them off. Thank you for your generous response.

Out of the Office Dee Patrick will be out of the office on Tuesday. Barbara Ewy and her family will be taking their yearly pilgrimage via Amtrak to Texas. They will be leaving on July 18 and will be gone through August 7. We wish them safe journey and a restful time with their family.

Camp Keola Camperships Young people from our church are eligible for Camp Keola camperships sponsored by the Mission and Service committee. Recite by memory both Psalm 8 and 23 and you will receive $80 towards camp fees. Recite one of the psalms and you get $40. Members of the Mission and Service committee who are eager to hear you recite the Psalms are William Ewy, Ruben Montes, Karen Peterson, Pauline Aguilar, Steve Penner, Dorothy Boldt, and Irma Aguilar.
