Thank you for choosing to worship with us this morning. If you are visiting with us today, we ask that you sign the guest book at the back of the church and that you please accept a small gift prepared just for you. The gift can be found in a basket on the back table.

The Oil Lamp at the front of our meeting place symbolizes our prayers for peace between our country and neighbors around the world.

July 25, 2010 On this Sunday morning Amy Stone, a student at MBBS, will be preaching in our English service. Lance and Christy Zimmerman will provide special music. In our Spanish service we can anticipate a rich time of worship and praise.

August 1, 2010 During our English language worship service Sarah Pohl, our ministry inquiry student from Bethel College, will offer the morning proclamation. Joleen Siebert will provide special music to bless our service. In our Spanish service the singing will be joyful and the message by Juan Montes will be inspirational and challenging.

Joys and Concerns This has been a big summer on our campus. But now our one week Vacation Bible School and our two week Summer Learning Experience are safely in the history books. We are grateful for all the children who took part and for the learning and growth that occurred. We are also very grateful for the Youth Venture volunteers--Jill, Calla, Megan, and Rosy—who contributed so much. We are also very appreciative of the overall leadership provided by Barbara Ewy.

Congo Speaker Tonight at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall Doug Kulungu will be speaking on the Congo. Doug is a recent graduate of Fresno Pacific. His father, Pascal, directs a peace and conflict studies center in Kinshasa. Doug hopes to return to the Congo and enter into politics with the fervent desire to better the land of his birth. Doug will be sharing at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Camp Keola High school camp at Camp Keola begins this afternoon. We pray for a great week for our campers and all those who work with them.

Peace Center Friday, July 23 – 6:30 p.m. Movie: The Gods Must Be Crazy. Three vignettes highlight the surreal in this 1980 classic comedy written and directed by Jamie Uys. Among the three, the one about a Coke bottle falling out of the heavens and becoming a one-of-a-kind object coveted by everyone in a small African village is a cult favorite. The bottle creates such dissension that its finder, N!xau, decides the gods must've been crazy to give such a gift, so he sets out to drop it off the edge of the world.

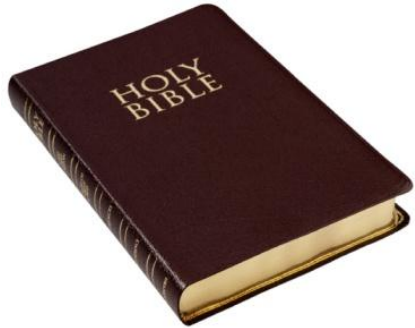

“Shaping Families” Radio Program on KRDU-AM (1130) The Bible and Suicide - have you ever pondered what the Bible says about suicide? Dr. Lloyd Carr, a retired Bible professor, explores this issue and his wife, Gwendolyn shares poetry about the death of their daughter-in-law. Listen today at 12:15 p.m. and again at 7:45 p.m. If you miss the broadcast you can visit www.ShapingFamilies.com to download a podcast or the transcript.

MCC Opportunity! Nearly New Thrift Shop has openings for Saturday clerks. Good opportunity for retired couples, or for anyone with a heart for MCC, to spend a morning or afternoon helping others! Two clerks are needed in the am (9am to 1pm) and two more in the pm (1pm to 4pm). Volunteer for one or more Saturdays per month. Will train. Call Aleta Rempel (637-1195) to apply.

Out of the Office Barbara Ewy and her family will be taking their yearly pilgrimage via Amtrak to Texas. They will be leaving today and will be gone through August 7. We wish them safe journey and a restful time with their family.

Pastoral Travels Steve and Glenna Penner will be away the next two Sundays. Tomorrow they leave for Oregon, returning on Monday evening, July 26. They will be in Reedley July 27 to 29, leaving on the afternoon of the 29th for Kansas City. They arrive back in Reedley on Tuesday afternoon, August 3rd, at the Fresno train station. In Oregon they will see their son Joseph and in Kansas City they will catch up with their youngest son, Jordan.

Lost & Found Do you know who reads a red leather New King James version of the Bible in large print? One was found last Sunday. If it is yours, or if you know who it belongs to, it can be picked up in the church office.
