Camp Keola Campers are returning with new inspiration, commitment, relationships, and skills from the recent Mennonite junior, junior high, and senior high camps. In September, Family Camp and Creative Arts Camp are additional opportunities for renewal and learning. For over 40 years Camp Keola has been a special place for Mennonite camping. September and October also bring financial necessities to be paid. We are looking for donors to help retire the debt on the beautiful wheelchair accessible building that contains a meeting room, eight bedrooms and four bathrooms. The yearly principal payment is $5,000, due in September. If you are called to help with the debt, or are interested in camping, see www.campkeola.org or talk to Brent Auernheimer or Roger Zimmerman.
