Peace Center Friday, July 9 – 6:30 p.m. Documentary: In the Light of Reverence. This film tells the stories of three communities and places they care for: the Lakota at Devils Tower in Wyoming, the Hopi in the Four Corners area of the Southwest, and the Wintu at Mt. Shasta in California. These are all places of extraordinary beauty, and impassioned controversy, as Indians and non-Indians struggle to co-exist with very different ideas about how the land should be used. For American Indians, the land is sacred and akin to the world's greatest cathedrals. For others, the land should be used for industry and recreation. In the Light of Reverence explores these issues from both sides of the debate by giving voice to the diverse people who utilize sacred places.

“Shaping Families” Radio Program on KRDU-AM (1130) Why do kids form cliques and gangs? What can parents and schools do about bullying? Three guests look at issues operating beneath the surface. Listen today at 12:15 p.m. and again at 7:45 p.m. If you miss the broadcast you can visit www.ShapingFamilies.com to download a podcast or the transcript.

Recycled Ink Cartridges Many of you have brought in your used ink cartridges for recycling. We use these to get credit for office supplies. There is now a box in the organ entry way where you can drop them off. Thank you for your generous response.
