The Oil Lamp at the front of our meeting place symbolizes our prayers for peace between our country and neighbors around the world.

Assistance for the hearing impaired is available from the audio operator.

Joys and Concerns This past weekend has been Bethel College's annual Fall Festival, a time rich with activities and alumni. Our church colleges all face challenging times and we want to support them in our prayers.

Wisdom Literature Continues Today Over the next Sundays, through November 15, Old Testament Wisdom Literature passages will form the biblical basis for our English language worship services. This means we will be dwelling in the books of Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes. There are 85 chapters in total in these three books. Why not make it a goal to read those 85 chapters over the next couple of months?

Peace Center Friday, October 9, 6:30-8:30 Speaker: David Cehrs. Topic: Unsustainable water demand: a Central California example. California's water demand exceeds its supply; to achieve sustainability will require lifestyle changes on the part of the entire population.

Volunteers needed for academic projects, role-plays, and interviews. For more information contact Lance Zimmerman at 393-7465 or lzimmerman@alliant.edu.

Guatemala Stories Will Have to Wait Jordan Penner was scheduled to share about his MCC SALT experiences in Guatemala tonight. However, due to extending his visit with his aunt and uncle in Hawaii, this presentation has to be postponed.

The Words to the Song Ro is singing this morning:

Redeemer

Who taught the sun where to stand in the morning
And who told the ocean "you can only go this far".
And who showed the moon where to hide till evening.
Whose words alone can catch a falling star.

Well I know my Redeemer lives
I know my Redeemer lives
All of creation testifies
This life with-in me cries
I know my Redeemer lives

The very same God that spins things in orbit
Runs to the weary, the worn and the weak.
And the same gentle hands that hold me when I broken
They conquered death to bring me victory

He lives to take away my shame.
And he lives forever I'll proclaim
That the payment for my sin was the precious live He gave
But now He's alive and there's an empty grave.
